hosted by Sam Darlington at Emerald Meadows
700 CR 105, Hutto, TX 78634

Do you have a New Year's resolution to dedicate more time this year to your horse?

Is this the year that you really want to improve your dressage knowledge, riding skills, & make a significant advancement in your horse's training? Then join us this afternoon to meet other dressage enthusiasts with similar New Year's resolutions. Learn what things you can do to make your goals a reality. All dressage enthusiasts are invited to this FREE fun get together sponsored by Austin Dressage Unlimited.

At this gathering, you will learn about ADU's premier dressage education program, "ADU-University." This innovative, proven successful program of dressage education offers 5 levels of structured training tracks, based on the degree of commitment the participant pledges to follow for the season. With the guidance of an approved qualified volunteer dressage mentor, the student will set the goals they wish to achieve, & establish a plan to follow a progressive riding & training program for the upcoming year. Several of the ADU-University mentors will be on hand for you to meet & speak with. For more details about ADU-U, please visit <http://www.austindressageunlimited.org/university.html>

You will also meet several ADU board members, including the Education Team. We invite you to bring your ideas & suggestions. This GMO is a shining example of members working together for the improvement & benefit of all.

"Promoting education in the Dressage community while encouraging advancement towards goals through a mutual support among friends."

So hop in the car & come on out to Emerald Meadows for some great food, fun, & time with other dressage & horse lovers! Let's plan for a fun & successful year of Dressage education in 2013!
