Bert's own very successful International Dressage competition career has provided the foundation of his phenomenal career as a dressage trainer and producer of top class horses for sale. With horses such as Parsival, Olympic Garibaldi, Zircoon, Robby, and the talented stallion, Clavecimbel, Bert represented the Netherlands in several European and World Championship competitions. He is a two time Olympian for Holland. Bert now breeds and purchases young horses and trains his talented horses to see them go on to find new homes in stables around the world. Multiple International riders have trained with, and bought horses from Bert, including Carl Hester, Vicki Thompson, Sonke Rothenberger, Shannon Dueck, Cheryl Meisner, among others. Dressuurstal Rutten is a world renowned facility for the breeding and training of dressage horses up to the Grand Prix level.
